

Weekly Regulation Update

Financial Systems & Regulation

EUROPE

- ESRB receives notifications to introduce macro-prudential measures
The Slovenian central bank wants to reinforce institutional liquidity, whilst Croatia's is trying to introduce a new systemic risk buffer.
- EBA publishes a list of incorrect rules on supervisory reporting
The errors refer to the validation rules in its Implementing Technical Standards (ITS). EBA will publish an updated list by June 2014.
- EBA updates its 2014 work programme
It covers 10 new topics related to CRR/CRD in its work programme for 2014.
- ESMA publishes statistics on reliability ratings of CRAs
Updated with 2H13 data from CEREP (Central Rating Repository), enabling investors to compare the performance of CRAs' ratings by geographical area and asset type.

GLOBAL

- FSB publishes responses to the OTC derivatives transactions record
The answers are to the consultation on the centralised aggregation of OTC derivatives trade depository data.

Recent publications of interest:

- Regulation Outlook April 2014.

Earlier editions of our Weekly Regulation update in Spanish and in English.