

Market Comment | Steady markets in an eventful day

Global Financial Markets Unit 15 Mar 2018

- Financial markets continued steady for another session, with no major events and no major economic data being released.
- Stock prices inched up, led by US stocks, as traders are already looking forward to next week's Fed monetary policy meeting. European stocks showed a mixed performance, with cyclicals and the technology sector outperforming.
- Sovereign bond yields again fell slightly as investors mulled over US trade protectionism after a new White House appointee took a tough line on China (see).
- Emerging currencies declined across the board as the USD appreciated slightly, especially the RUB after the US slapped sanctions on Russia for meddling in the 2016 US elections (see)
